

DOCTORS HELP DESERVING POOR

City and County Physicians
Cooperate to Expedite
Work at Hospital.

El Paso physicians have organized to provide free medical and surgical service for the deserving poor of El Paso, city and county, and are devoting their services to the care of the poor who are confined at the El Paso county hospital. The organization is known as the clinical staff of the El Paso county hospital and clinic. It was organized recently at a meeting of about 20 El Paso physicians and surgeons.

Dr. F. R. Miller has been elected president of the organization and the other officers are Dr. J. A. Rawlings, vice president, and Dr. W. R. Jamieson, secretary-treasurer.

Doctors Enlisted Are 21.

The organization has already secured a membership of 21 doctors in the city. These men have been organized into different sections to care for various diseases and have arranged among themselves the time each will put in at the county hospital to care for the sick. In addition clinics are being held at the court house and those who need attention there are being cared for.

To Help Worthy Poor.
The purpose of the organization is to care for the worthy poor of El Paso. Dr. F. R. Miller, El Paso's poor should be given the same attention that the poor in other cities are being given and the physicians and surgeons of El Paso have volunteered their services for these people. Dr. J. W. Tappan, city physician, and Dr. T. J. McCann, county physician, are working with us in taking care of the poor and we intend to give them our entire support and cooperation. The physicians and surgeons decided that there are too many cases at the hospital for one man to take care of as some days at the county hospital Dr. McCann has had as high as 194 patients to treat.

Providing Better Equipment.

In addition, the organization intends to secure better accommodations at the hospital. It has been found that there is not a single bed in the hospital and every bit of food served to the patients must be served on trays. One of our first aims was to take up this matter and already we are beginning to obtain tables for all of the rooms. The sisters at Hotel Dieu have donated tables and the county commissioners have also offered us any of the furniture of the old court house which we can use in the hospital.

Will Demand More Funds.

The organization intends to bring about cooperation on all sides for the care of the sick. The city administration and county commissioners are being urged to assist in our work. The organization has been working for some time and has met with great success in its efforts so far, and has insured care for all sick who are confined in the hospital.

Section Workers Are Named.

The members have divided their number into sections to carry on the relief work. The various sections and their members follow:

Failed of Reelection;

Washington, D. C., March 2.—The senate of the 56th congress is packing its duds today for its departure into history. Its official exit is scheduled for noon tomorrow and the closing hours today were marked by the customary parliamentary sparring to clean up the calendar.

Sixteen senators will discard their togas and prefix their titles with "ex" after tomorrow.

Among the nationally known senators retiring to private life are Clarence D. Clark, of Wyoming, who has served in the senate continuously since January 23, 1935; Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, one of the original Progressives; Luke Lea, of Tennessee, now only 37 years old, known as the "Baby Senator"; James E. Martin, of New Jersey, who acquired fame early in his senatorial career by his staunch defense of apples; and C. Vann Woodward, of Indiana, the present Democratic leader of the senate.

"Needing no introduction" among the new senators are Hiram Johnson, of California; Frank B. Kellogg, "trust buster," of Minnesota; and Emlander C. Rook, of Pennsylvania. Unlike the rest of the senators elect, "their reputations are made," all they need to do is to "go to work."

In the senate under the present makeup, there are 55 Democrats and 41 Republicans. The new senators are working out the Democrats will have 54 and the Republicans 42.

Here is the list of the retiring senators and their successors and the politics of each:
